7. Recommended Actions

{{#IF OVERALL_RISK_LEVEL == "HIGH"}}

- Extend transaction tracing beyond the current number of hops to identify ultimate beneficiaries.
- Preserve transaction hashes and wallet evidence for potential legal proceedings.

- Investigate suspicious destination addresses and related transaction clusters.

{{/IF}}

{{#IF OVERALL_RISK_LEVEL == "MEDIUM"}}

- Conduct additional review of identified risk indicators.
- Monitor subsequent transactions involving the suspect wallet and related addresses.

{{/IF}}

{{#IF OVERALL_RISK_LEVEL == "LOW"}}

- Continue routine monitoring if new relevant transactions are detected.

{{/IF}}

{{#IF VASP_INTERACTION == TRUE}}

- Preserve VASP interaction details for further authorized investigation via legal request.

{{/IF}}

{{#IF MIXER_OR_BRIDGE_INTERACTION == TRUE}}

- Conduct additional analysis of transactions before and after the mixer or bridge interaction to deanonymize fund flow.

8. Limitations

- Blockchain addresses are pseudonymous and do not directly prove ownership or identity without off-chain attribution.
- Analysis is limited to available on-chain data and the selected tracing scope defined in this report.
- Off-chain transactions and internal exchange activities may not be visible on the public ledger.
- VASP customer information may require authorized access or lawful requests to establish identity.
- The use of mixers, bridges, and cross-chain transfers reduces tracing certainty and can obscure the trail of funds.
- Risk and confidence scores are analytical indicators based on observed patterns and do not constitute proof of illegal activity.
